THE FOOD TRUCK RODEO

WHO Western New Yorkers of all ages- families, students, young professionals- come to the popular Food Truck Rodeo. Between 10-15 local food trucks set up shop in the Museum parking lot, providing guests with a wide array of dining options.

WHAT Now in its third year, The Food Truck Rodeo offers corporate supporters seasonal exposure in a family-oriented environment. Each Rodeo brings over 500 people to Museum grounds for picnicking, free music, free museum admission and to support local fare.

Children's activities and crafts take place at the Museum and our loyal "Rail Baron" volunteers operate the 1900 replica train model. Gallery Guides also offer free docent-led tours of exhibits. The 2015 Rodeo series will include lawn games, face painting and chalk art. We will also open the doors for open house tours of The Julia Boyer Reinstein Center, conveniently located on Museum grounds across the parking lot from The Museum.

WHEN The first Wednesday of each month from June through September

THE TRAINS ARE RUNNING! 25TH ANNIVERSARY

WHO Since 1990, The Rotary Train Gallery has attracted a multigenerational audience and thousands of visitors annually. A team of dedicated volunteers serve over 550 of hours each year maintaining, building and running the model trains.

WHAT The Buffalo History Museum's impressive train display includes 1900s replica model trains running on more than 200 feet of track, a scale Erie Canal lock and 100 miniature buildings portraying 19th century Buffalo and Western New York. The recently expanded waterfront has given new life to the display have made the Rotary Train Gallery a focal point.

This winter, The Museum invested resources to enhance the Train Gallery: a Ticket Booth will open in January 2015, allowing volunteers to distribute train tickets to children. A small exhibit will showcase artifacts from the time period, depicting the rail industry.

Promotions for the Train Gallery run in family-oriented publications and outlets, including WNY Family Magazine and online calendars.

Train Gallery sponsorships offer organizations year-round exposure in a family-friendly environment.

WHEN "Train Season" kicks off each year with "Train Day," which takes place on the fourth Friday of each November. Trains run most weekends from December – March; on M&T Third Fridays throughout the year; and during family events.
